Introduction

A supported operating system is one for which Cambium Assessment, Inc. (CAI) provides updates to the Secure Browser for that operating system. CAI actively tests the Secure Browser with supported operating systems to ensure compatibility and provides Secure Browser updates as needed when the supported operating systems are updated or as bugs in the Secure Browser are detected and fixed.

This document describes CAI's plan for supporting operating systems during the upcoming test administration and following years. This plan helps districts and schools manage operating system deployments based on the support timelines.

Support Plan for Operating Systems

Table 1 lists the operating systems and the anticipated end-of-support dates. The shaded cells in Table 1 indicate the following:

- Yellow shading—CAI ends support for operating systems after the 2020–2021 school year.
- Gray shading—CAI ends support for operating systems after the 2021–2022 school year.

Table 1. Supported Operating Systems

Supported Operating System	Release Date	Anticipated End-of-Support Date	Notes
Windows ^a
8 (Professional & Enterprise)	Oct. 2012	End of SY2021-2022	CAI's support for Windows operating systems ends ten school years after its release date. For the most part, this coincides with Microsoft's official end-of-life policies for its operating systems.
8.1 (Professional & Enterprise)	Oct. 2013	End of SY2022-2023
10, 10 in S mode (Educational, Professional, & Enterprise (Versions 1809-2004 ^b))	July 2015; rolling	End of SY2024-2025
Server 2012 R2	Oct. 2013	End of SY2022-2023
Server 2016 R2	Oct. 2016	End of SY2025-2026
Mac ^a
10.11	Sept. 2015	End of SY2020-2021	As long as Apple continues to release new versions of macOS annually, CAI will support the six latest versions in 2020-2021. By Fall 2022, CAI will transition to a support policy of four active versions of macOS.
10.12	Sept. 2016	End of SY2020-2021
10.13	Sept. 2017	End of SY2021-2022
10.14	Sept. 2018	End of SY2021-2022
10.15	Oct. 2019	End of SY2022-2023
10.16 ^b	Oct. 2020	End of SY2022-2023
Linux ^c
Fedora 30 LTS (Gnome)	April 2019	End of SY2022-2023	Official Fedora support typically ends one to two years after a release.
Fedora 31 LTS (Gnome) ^b	Oct. 2019	End of SY2023-2024

Operating System Support Plan for Test Delivery System

Supported Operating System	Release Date	Anticipated End-of-Support Date	Notes
Ubuntu 16.04 LTS (Gnome)	April 2016	End of SY2020-2021	Ubuntu typically supports long term support (LTS) distributions for five years after a release.
Ubuntu 18.04 LTS (Gnome)	April 2018	End of SY2022-2023
Ubuntu 20.04 LTS (Gnome)	April 2020	End of SY2023-2024
iOS/iPadOS
12.4 13.4 14 ^b	Sept. 2018; rolling	CAI supports the three most recent major releases of iOS.	Supported iPads: All 9.7" or larger iPads running a supported version of iOS/iPadOS.
Chrome OS ^d
84+	June 2020; rolling	For any given school year CAI will support the latest version of Chrome OS available during the summer months and all subsequent versions until the following summer. For example; if Chrome 84 is released in July, it and all versions of Chrome after it will be supported until July of the following year.	Google releases new versions of Chrome OS every six weeks. Support may require updating the Chrome kiosk application.

- a If Microsoft or Apple ends support for an operating system sooner than six years after its release, then CAI will stop supporting that system one full school year after support ends.
- b Support for this version is anticipated upon the completion of testing following its release.
- c For Linux distributions, CAI will end support at the end of a full school year after the official distributor's announced end-of-life support date.
- d CAI will support any device that Google actively supports for auto-update. CAI will not support any device that Google does not support for auto-update. Information on Google's auto-update policy, including currently supported devices, can be found at <https://support.google.com/chrome/a/answer/6220366>.
